"THE NEW BOY."

Large Audience at the Thenire Lust Night-"Moths"-The Lyceum.

1

A small matinee, indeed one of the lightest audiences of the season, and a bumping big house in the evening, with every seat down stairs occupied, was the experience of Gustave Frohman's "New Boy" yesterday at the theatre. This comedy, or farce, is as

GREAT STRIKES IN LEADVILLE. Highest Honors-World's Fair,

Salt Lakers Are Interested in the New Discoveries.

Several Salt Lake people are still hold-ing interestss in the new gold district at Leadville, Colo., and their loy at the sud-den appreciation of the value of their property is almost boundless. Nich strikes are now matters of almost daily occurare now matters of almost daily occurrence, four having been uncovered during the past week.

First came the Rex, located on the lowa much or southern line of the present gold district, says the Rocky Mountain News. This was an exploit of the diamond drill. Before it consed to be a topic of excitement the shaft strike in the Triumph was herakied, and then followed the Garbutt and the Bon-Air, the last named a silver-lead proposition, of importance only in connection with the treatment of the gold ores.

The Rex is a Leadville property. The friumph and Garbutt are Denver enterprises. The latter mine is included in the properties of the Huida Mining company, in which D. H. Moffat and Eben Smith are the principal stockholders. The Gar-

On Saturday, the Leadville (Colorado On Saturday, the Leadville (Colorado) Herald-Democrat gave the total output of the camp for 1894, and places the amount received from the sale of orea and builion at $1.90,004. If aliver had been at its colunge value the output would have amounted to $13.00,000. Of the 1894 output, the productoin of gold amounted to $1.304.209. This, says the Herald-Democrat, is certainly an excellent record for a gold camp, but a year old, and with but three gold properties practically producing at this time. The gold output for 1896 was only a little over $500.000.

The tonnage of the camp for 1894 as
